23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 5, 2021
“Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?”

JAMES 2:5

What is more important – being rich in faith or rich in possessions? Society tells us that possessions are most important. God teaches a different lesson. When we are rich in faith, we keep God first and experience true joy and peace. When we put possessions first, we soon realize we can never have enough, and happiness is fleeting. When we put faith over possessions, we truly realize it is better to give than receive.

There will be a special 2nd collection next weekend for The Catholic University of America. Catholic University is a national research university with over 5,700 undergraduate and graduate students in more than 250 academic programs in the heart of Washington, D.C. Our donations help support both future Catholic leaders, religious and lay, who are being formed by an exceptional, faith-rooted education with various research and training initiatives that support diocese and parishes in our country. Learn more at: collection.catholic.edu.
